Barnsley Bereavement Support Service

Bereavement support offered by volunteers in a service users home. Free confidential help from trained volunteers to those who cannot come to terms with their bereavement. It is available to all those who live in the Barnsley district. Access to the service is by telephone. When the telephone is not manned messages can be left on answer machine. Included as the only recognised local charity dealing with bereavement in the Borough. Have close links with the police and so are involved in any police cases where there has been a death.

Cruse Bereavement – Sheffield

Cruse Bereavement Care is the leading national charity for bereaved people in England, Wales and Northern Ireland. We offer support, advice and information to children, young people and adults when someone dies and work to enhance society's care of bereaved people.

Cruse offers face-to-face, telephone, email and website support. We have a national helpline and local services, and a website and freephone helpline specifically for children and young people. Our services are provided by trained volunteers and are confidential and free. Cruse also provides training and consultancy for external organisations and for those who may encounter bereaved people in the course of their work.
