Open Access Service - East Riding of Yorkshire Council

If you think you have a problem with drink or drugs it is possible to get help locally. You can ring up for help and information and if you want to see someone they will talk to you about your problem and discuss what sort of treatment is suitable for you. The open access service offers an outreach service so you can be seen in confidence near where you live.

If you want to talk to someone because you have a drink or drugs problem you can contact the open access service.
