Fledglings

Fledglings is a charity which helps parents and carers of a child with special needs of any kind to find simple, affordable solutions to practical problems. Fledglings can help by giving information and advice about products to help with your child's specific development and learning needs or your needs as a carer. In addition we may be able to order and supply those items or refer you to another source of supply. We specialise in finding those unusual items which may not be easily available elsewhere or those designed specially for children with additional needs.

The RIVA Project

The Riva Project offers recreational and work-based training for people with disabilities (including people with learning disabilities, physical and/or sensory impairments and mental health issues) or anyone who would benefit from independent living skills. The Riva Project includes a café, charity shop and garden in which people can learn about retail, catering, horticultural and customer service skills, along with other essential life skills. Some areas of the project are open to the public so that students can practice their skills by interacting with the public.
